About Upstate South Carolina

Nestled against the foothills of the Blue Ridge Mountains on the Interstate 85 corridor, GSP International Airport serves a rapidly growing region of the western Carolinas anchored by the cities of Greenville and Spartanburg. GSP's ideal location allows access to over 3.3 million residents within 75 miles and is home to over 500 international companies from over 30 countries. Once known as the "Textile Capital of the World," the Upstate has become a center for innovation in automation and manufacturing across several industries. With a small town spirit and an urban feel, we welcome you to our region.
